106TH CONGRESS 2D SESSION

S. RES. 269

Expressing the sense of the Senate with respect to United States relations with the Russian Federation, given the Russian Federation's conduct in Chechnya, and for other purposes.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

March 9, 2000

Mr. Helms submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations

RESOLUTION

Expressing the sense of the Senate with respect to United States relations with the Russian Federation, given the Russian Federation's conduct in Chechnya, and for other purposes.

Whereas the Senate of the United States unanimously passed Senate Resolution 262 on February 24th, 2000, to condemn the indiscriminate use of force by the Government of the Russian Federation against the people of Chechnya, to prompt peace negotiations between the Government of the Russian Federation and the Government of Chechnya led by elected President Aslan Maskhadov, and to prompt the Government of the Russian Federation to immediately grant international organizations full and unimpeded access in Chechnya and the surrounding regions so that they can provide much needed humanitarian assistance and investigate alleged atrocities and war crimes;

- Whereas the Committee on Foreign Relations of the Senate received credible evidence and testimony reporting that Russian forces in Chechnya caused the deaths of countless thousands of innocent civilians; caused the displacement of well over 250,000 innocents; forcibly relocated refugee populations; and have committed widespread atrocities, including summary executions, torture, and rape;
- Whereas the Government of the Russian Federation has repeatedly violated the principles of the freedom of the press by subjecting journalists, such as Radio Free Liberty/Radio Europe correspondent Andrei Babitsky, who oppose or question its policies to censorship, intimidation, harassment, incarceration, and violence;
- Whereas the Government of the Russian Federation continues its military campaign in Chechnya, including the use of indiscriminate force, causing further dislocation of people from their homes, the deaths of noncombatants and widespread suffering;
- Whereas this war contributes to ethnic hatred and religious intolerance within the Russian Federation, jeopardizes prospects for the establishment of democracy in the Russian Federation, undercuts the ability of the international community to trust the Russian Federation as a signatory to international agreements, generates political instability within the Russian Federation, and is a threat to the peace in the region; and
- Whereas the Senate expresses its concern over the war and humanitarian tragedy in Chechnya, and its desire for a peaceful and durable settlement to the conflict: Now, therefore, be it

- 1 Resolved, That it is the sense of the Senate that—
- 2 (1) the indifference of most Western govern3 ments, including that of the United States, toward 4 this conflict has encouraged the Government of the 5 Russian Federation to intensify and expand its mili6 tary campaign in Chechnya, further contributing to 7 the suffering of the Chechen people;
 - (2) the Acting President of the Russian Federation, Vladimir Putin, is directly responsible for the conduct of Russian troops in and around Chechnya and accountable for war crimes and atrocities committed by them against the Chechen people;
 - (3) the Acting President of the Russian Federation should—
 - (A) immediately cease the military operations in Chechnya and initiate negotiations toward a just peace with the leadership of the Chechen government, including President Aslan Maskhadov;
 - (B) grant international missions immediate full and unimpeded access into Chechnya and surrounding regions so that they can monitor and report on the situation there and investigate alleged atrocities and war crimes;

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

1	(C) allow international humanitarian agen-
2	cies immediate full and unimpeded access to
3	Chechen civilians, including those in refugee
4	detention and so-called "filtration camps" or
5	any other facility where citizens of Chechnya
6	are detained; and
7	(D) investigate fully the atrocities com-
8	mitted in Chechnya, including those alleged in
9	Alkhan-Yurt and Grozny, and initiate prosecu-
10	tions against officers and soldiers accused of
11	those atrocities;
12	(4) the President of the United States should—
13	(A) affirm respect for human rights, demo-
14	cratic rule of law, and international account-
15	ability as a foundation of United States foreign
16	policy;
17	(B) affirm respect for human rights, demo-
18	cratic rule of law, and international account-
19	ability as a precondition to United States-Rus-
20	sian cooperation;
21	(C) reevaluate United States foreign policy
22	toward the Russian Federation given its con-
23	duct in Chechnya, remilitarization, and questionable commitment to democracy;

- 1 (D) support societal forces in the Russian 2 Federation fighting to preserve democracy there, including empowering human rights ac-3 4 tivists and promoting programs designed to 5 strengthen the independent media, 6 unions, political parties, civil society, and the 7 democratic rule of law:
 - (E) promote peace negotiations between the Government of the Russian Federation and the leadership of the Chechen government, including President Aslan Maskhadov, through third-party mediation by the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), the United Nations, or other appropriate parties;
 - (F) endorse the call of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights for an investigation of alleged war crimes committed by the Russian military in Chechnya; and
 - (G) take tangible steps to demonstrate to the Government of the Russian Federation that the United States strongly condemns its conduct in Chechnya and its unwillingness to find a just political solution to the conflict in Chechnya, including—

8

9

10

11

12

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

1	(i) a refusal to participate in bilateral
2	summit meetings with the Government of
3	the Russian Federation;
4	(ii) a call for the suspension of the
5	Russian Federation from the forum of G-
6	7 plus 1 state; and
7	(iii) a suspension of financial assist-
8	ance to the Russian Federation provided
9	through the International Monetary Fund,
10	the World Bank, the Export-Import Bank
11	of the United States, and the Overseas
12	Private Investment Corporation; and
13	(5) the President of the United States should
14	not reverse the actions taken under paragraph
15	(4)(G) until the Government of the Russian Federa-
16	tion has—
17	(A) ceased its military operations in
18	Chechnya and initiated negotiations toward a
19	just peace with the leadership of the Chechen
20	government led by President Aslan Maskhadov;
21	(B) provided full and unimpeded access
22	into and around Chechnya to international mis-
23	sions to monitor and report on the situation
24	there and to investigate alleged atrocities and
25	war crimes;

1	(C) granted international humanitarian
2	agencies immediate full and unimpeded access
3	to Chechen civilians, including those in refugee,
4	detention, and so-called "filtration camps" or
5	any other facility where citizens of Chechnya
6	are detained; and
7	(D) investigated fully the atrocities com-

(D) investigated fully the atrocities committed in Chechnya including those alleged in Alkhan-Yurt and Grozny, and initiated prosecutions against officers and soldiers accused of those atrocities.

 \bigcirc